

Counter Strike 2

E-Sports Tournament

Event Type:

5v5 Standard Competitive

Duration & Reporting:

Match Duration: First to 13 rounds (overtime by 2 rounds) | Report: 30 minutes before scheduled slot

Description:

Counter-Strike is a team-based tactical shooter where two teams compete. Terrorists (T) typically try to plant and detonate a bomb or eliminate the opposing team. Counter-Terrorists (CT) try to prevent the bomb from being planted, defuse it, or eliminate the Terrorists. The tournament is open to all students with a valid college ID, and matches are Best of 1/3/5 played on Dust and Mirage maps.

Performance Rules & Regulations:

- Equipment: Gaming Laptops, mouse, mousepad, or any additional equipment must be brought by the participants themselves and will not be provided by the organisers. Players must ensure stable internet and working peripherals.
- Fair Play & Integrity: Any cheats, hacks, scripts, or third-party tools lead to disqualification. No bug or glitch exploits (camera spots, map exploits, etc.) are allowed, and voice chat is allowed only within the team. Only official game features are allowed.
- Conduct: Respect all opponents, teammates, and officials; no toxic behaviour, spamming, or offensive behaviour. No intentionally delaying or stalling rounds.
- Disqualification & Authority: Disqualification for cheats, unregistered players, smurfing, bug exploits, disrespect, or ignoring admin rules. Referee, admin, and organizer decisions are final. Substitutes are allowed only between maps.
- Prizes: 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place prizes will be awarded, along with certificates for all participants.
