The Product Case Challenge – Official Rules & Guidelines

Event Type:

Team Event (2 to 4 Members per Team)

Competition Format:

Two Rounds (No Elimination) – Combined Performance Evaluation

Description:

MarketMind is a structured, case-based competition assessing participants' ability to interpret product and business scenarios, identify root problems, formulate viable strategies, and communicate recommendations with conviction. It evaluates analytical reasoning, strategic decision-making, and professional communication in a time-bound environment. All teams participate in both rounds without mid-way elimination.

Round Structure & Specifications:

- Round I – Case Analysis & Written Response:
 - Each team receives a real-world product, market, business, or operational case study.
 - Preparation: 30–45 minutes to analyze facts, constraints, and underlying causes.
 - Submission: Written responses reflecting the team's original analysis and recommendations.
 - Zero Elimination: All teams automatically advance to Round II; submissions are evaluated together after both rounds conclude.
- Round II – Case Presentation & Q&A:
 - Format: 5–7 minutes presentation followed by 3–5 minutes of judging panel Q&A.
 - Core Focus: Problem definition, strategic solution, justification, risks, and impact.
 - Defense: Teams must defend their strategic assumptions and respond to judges' questions under strict time limits.

Evaluation & Judging Criteria:

- Problem Understanding & Analysis (30%): Depth of case comprehension, identification of core problem, recognition of underlying causes/constraints, and logical use of case data.
- Proposed Solution / Strategy (30%): Relevance, feasibility, strategic soundness, innovation, justification of recommendations, and recognition of trade-offs and risks.
- Presentation & Communication (20%): Structure, clarity, visual support, teamwork coordination, professional delivery, and strict adherence to time limits.
- Q&A / Defense of Solution (20%): Accuracy of responses, ability to defend strategic assumptions, conceptual depth, logical handling of challenges, and composure.

Total: 100%

Tie-Breaking Procedure:

In the event of a tie in the final score, rankings are resolved sequentially using:

1. Higher score in Problem Understanding & Analysis
2. Higher score in Proposed Solution / Strategy
3. Higher score in Q&A / Defense of Solution
4. Higher score in Presentation & Communication

(If a tie persists, judges conduct an additional evaluation challenge whose decision is final).

Rules, Code of Conduct & Motto:

- Venue Reporting: Teams must report to the venue at least 15 minutes before scheduled start.
- Fair Play & Integrity: Strict prohibition on unauthorized external assistance, collaboration between teams, copying, or plagiarism. Any malpractice leads to immediate disqualification.
- Judges' Authority: The decision of the judges and organizing committee regarding scoring, rankings, and conduct is final and binding.
